

Questions and Notes

Use the space below to make your own notes and track ideas and questions about Alternative Response. Please bring these ideas and questions to your agency “kick-off meeting” as well as your practice training.

Alternative Response Orientation –Worksheet

How would you work with a parent in setting a meeting, expressing reasons for CPS involvement, and making your role and timeline clear with an AR case? Write down your ideas below.

Now that you’ve had a chance to listen to Amy’s first phone call with Sam, what did you hear that you might borrow? What would you do differently? Write down your ideas below.

In the space below, write down ideas on how you would cover the following topics during your first meeting with a family. Think about how this may be different from your current practice.

- Discuss what it means to be on the AR pathway
- Explain the role of the social worker on the AR pathway
- Communicate reasons why an AR case might be reassigned
- Assess for Present Danger

Now that you have had a chance to hear some of Amy's conversation with Sam at their face-to-face meeting, what might you borrow? What would you do differently? Write down your ideas below.

Write down any additional questions below and bring them to your agency "kick-off meeting."
